

What's Included in a Membership?

Learn more about all of the essential components that make up a membership to TheCorporateCounsel.net!

TheCorporateCounsel.net supports the modern corporate practitioner in staying ahead of the latest developments in securities law and governance.

Our Editorial team has packed the site with guidance that will help you address even the most challenging issues you are grappling with as a corporate practitioner. And more guidance is added every day!

- ✓ 500 Practice Areas focused on a large spectrum of relevant topics.
- ✓ Two Q&A Forums: one general for any relevant member questions, and one focused on Securities Act Rule 144. Hundreds of member questions are asked and answered each year!
- ✓ Over 60 Handbooks with comprehensive, in-depth resources for anyone preparing securities disclosures or advising boards.
- ✓ Hundreds of Checklists on a variety of topics, which give members brief synopses to cover their bases and comply with the rules.
- ✓ 100+ Sample Documents to give members a suggested framework to work from when creating documents necessary in their roles.

- ✓ Quick Surveys, where our Editorial Team polls our members and displays the findings to gain a greater understanding of industry trends and more.
- ✓ Webcasts and Podcasts, where our Editors have conversations with experts across industries (with CLE Credit available for both live and pre-recorded webcasts!). Check out podcast series on topics like activism, mentorship, women in governance and more.
- ✓ Five Unique Blogs, where our Editorial team posts over a thousand times per year on a wide variety of topics.
